Transfiguration of Our Lord

February 11, 2018

Prayer of the Day

O God, at the glorious transfiguration of your only Son, you confirmed the mystery of our faith by the witness of the disciples and by your own voice from the cloud. Mercifully complete our adoption as your children, and give us, with our King, an inheritance of his glory. Grant this, we pray, through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

First Reading: Exodus 34:29-35

²⁹When Moses came down from Mount Sinai, with the two tablets of the testimony in his hand as he came down from the mountain, Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone because he had been talking with God. ³⁰Aaron and all the people of Israel saw Moses, and behold, the skin of his face shone, and they were afraid to come near him. ³¹But Moses called to them, and Aaron and all the leaders of the congregation returned to him, and Moses talked with them. ³²Afterward all the people of Israel came near, and he commanded them all that the Lord had spoken with him in Mount Sinai. ³³And when Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil over his face. ³⁴Whenever Moses went in before the Lord to speak with him, he would remove the veil, until he came out. And when he came out and told the people of Israel what he was commanded, ³⁵the people of Israel would see the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses' face was shining. And Moses would put the veil over his face again, until he went in to speak with him.

Psalm 50:1-6

¹The Lord, the God of gods, has spoken;
he has called the earth
from the rising of the sun to its setting.

²Out of Zion, perfect in its beauty,
God reveals himself in glory.

³Our God will come and will not keep silence;
before him there is a consuming flame,
and round about him a raging storm.

⁴He calls the heavens and the earth from above
to witness the judgment of his people.

⁵"Gather before me my loyal followers,
those who have made a covenant with me
and sealed it with sacrifice."

⁶Let the heavens declare the rightness of his cause;
for God himself is judge.

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 3:12-13, 4:1-6

¹²Since we have such a hope, we are very bold, ¹³not like Moses, who would put a veil over his face so that the Israelites might not gaze at the outcome of what was being brought to an end.

¹Therefore, having this ministry by the mercy of God, we do not lose heart. ²But we have renounced disgraceful, underhanded ways. We refuse to practice cunning or to tamper with God's word, but by the open statement of the truth we would commend ourselves to everyone's conscience in the sight of God. ³And even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing. ⁴In their case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, to keep them from seeing the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God. ⁵For what we proclaim is not ourselves, but Jesus Christ as Lord, with ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake. ⁶For God, who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

Gospel: Mark 9:2-9

²After six days Jesus took with him Peter and James and John, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, ³and his clothes became radiant, intensely white, as no one on earth could bleach them. ⁴And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses, and they were talking with Jesus. ⁵And Peter said to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good that we are here. Let us make three tents, one for you and one for Moses and one for Elijah." ⁶For he did not know what to say, for they were terrified. ⁷And a cloud overshadowed them, and a voice came out of the cloud, "This is my beloved Son; listen to him." ⁸And suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone with them but Jesus only. ⁹And as they were coming down the mountain, he charged them to tell no one what they had seen, until the Son of Man had risen from the dead.

We are currently making an effort to revive our Sunday Night Bible Study. The Duskins hosted it for many years and for that we are grateful. It will be held at Judy Jones' home, 304 West Buckeye Street, Clyde and it will be led by John Glass. We would like to have an organizational meeting on Sunday, February 18, 2018 at 7:00 p.m. It will start regularly Sunday, March 4, 2018 at 7:00 p.m. and continue monthly the first Sunday of the month with the exception for EASTER SUNDAY, April 1, 2018 we will go the 2nd Sunday. If you have questions, please feel free to call me Judy Jones ~ 419-547-7039.

Assisting Families in Need of School Supplies in the Fall

The St. Paul Women have decided to join the First Missionary Church on South Main Street with assisting families in need with school supplies in the fall. There will be a box for collection in the hallway between the sanctuary and the parish hall. For the month of February, we are collecting: disinfectant wipes, gallon & quart zip lock bags, one subject spiral notebooks and 24 count Crayola crayons to help with the Clyde Elementary School Supply Give-a-Way.

MILLER RECEIPTS

As most of you know, Miller's Grocery Store gives the churches one cent for every dollar you send in the store. But... there are some rules we must follow. First and most important is the receipts have to be current which means each month receipts are good ONLY till the 15th of the next month. You MUST also save the complete receipt, thus providing the date and showing all purchases, as we cannot include beer, wine, lotto tickets or cigarette purchases. Thanks to those who are saving the receipts and if you are not, how about starting?? Just place them in the church collection plates.
